Iris Wong Memorial Fund for the Creative Arts Scholarship Application 2019

The Iris Wong Memorial Fund for the Creative Arts: VNEF will award one $1,000 scholarship on the basis of academic standing and review of the applicant's portfolio and/or resume and answers to questions in the application. Iris Wong held a deep love and appreciation for art and everything creative. To honor her spirit, Iris' family created this endowment to help others with a similar passion begin their post-secondary education in either a fine arts or performing arts discipline.

Requirements:

1. Students must be current full-time seniors.
2. Scholarship recipients must present a plan for pursuing a fine arts education (painting, sculpture, film, photography, video production or poetry, for example) or performing arts education (music, theatre or dance, for example) after graduation from high school, either attending an art school or majoring in fine arts or performing arts at a college/university setting.
3. Minimum GPA of 3.0 as documented by the high school transcript. Please attach an unofficial copy of the high school transcript to this application.
4. Complete the entire Scholarship Application.
5. Provide a portfolio for fine arts majors for a scheduled review by VNEF Scholarship Committee. This may be done via an online website or by appointment for review of a physical portfolio. Performing arts students do not need to present a portfolio but should include performance experience in the resume.
6. Attach a Resume.
7. Late or incomplete applications will not be accepted nor considered.

All other senior applicants should submit completed applications to the VHS

Counseling Office by 4:00 pm on Tuesday, April 30th, 2019.
